BIOGRAPHY

ALRIUS is a young artist and music producer with romanian origins established in Zaragoza, Spain, since his childhood. His love for electronic music began at an early age when he discovered electro house of the time through the YouTube platform. This crucial moment ignited a passion in him to create his own music with the goal of providing people the best possible experience while also being like therapy for them.

Recognized for his melodic, progressive, and emotional style, ALRIUS draws inspiration from a wide range of musical genres. His creative approach avoids limitations, seeking to experiment with different styles to constantly innovate and evolve his sound.

As a developing artist, ALRIUS has collected good feedbacks on some of his songs from artists like Black Coffee, Nicole Moudaber, Enzo Siffredi, Joseph Capriati, Miguel Bastida, Carl Bee or AMARE among others.
