About Rogerio

Rogerio Lopez is a Lisbon-born, Dubai-based DJ and music producer with over 25 years of international experience, known for seamlessly blending House, Afro House, Disco and Latin influences into refined, groove-driven sets.

Rooted in the south of France and shaped by European club culture, his musical identity balances elegance with energy moving effortlessly from sunset atmospheres to peak-time dance floors. His performances are defined by precision mixing, emotional transitions, and a deep understanding of rhythm and crowd psychology.

From intimate luxury venues to large-scale events, Rogerio delivers curated musical journeys designed to elevate spaces and create lasting moments.

Biography

Over 25 years shaping dance floors across Europe and now the Middle East.

European Foundations

Born in Lisbon and raised in the south of France, Rogerio Lopez developed an early connection to House music that would shape his artistic path. His early residencies across France and Scandinavia established him as a technically refined DJ with an intuitive ability to read the room and build energy with precision.

International Recognition

Sharing stages with artists such as Benni Benassi, Martin Solveig, Black Coffee, Mark Knight and Roger Sanchez, Rogerio earned recognition for delivering sets that balance sophistication with dancefloor intensity.

His journey has seen him perform at prestigious venues including Tempel (Helsingborg), NASA (Copenhagen) and Platinum Club (Geneva), as well as major international events such as Formula 1 Abu Dhabi and exclusive Ferrari showcases.

In Dubai, he became a key figure in the city's evolving nightlife scene, serving for eight years as Assistant Music Director and resident DJ at COYA, where he shaped musical direction and curated immersive sound identities within one of the region's most respected hospitality brands.

Having held residencies at Nikki Beach, Stella, Arts Club Dubai and Ongaku by Clap, Rogerio currently maintains active residencies at SAN Beach and Salvaje, reinforcing his presence at the forefront of Dubai's luxury nightlife scene while bridging underground credibility with refined hospitality culture.

Artist & Curator

As a producer, his work focuses on groove, percussion and emotive textures, merging House, Afro rhythms and melodic elements with a refined modern edge.

Through his podcast series, "What's Your Vibe?", he explores the full spectrum of House music from soulful selections to peak-time energy reflecting his dedication to musical storytelling and curated experiences.

Beyond performance and production, he is the founder of Sole Mani Entertainment, a boutique music consultancy providing curated sound identities for luxury retail and hospitality brands across the Middle East, further reinforcing his expertise in shaping musical experiences both on and off the dancefloor.
